Subject: Request for Brief Mentorship Meeting

Dear Sir,

I hope you are having a productive week.

My name is Panchami Chakraborty, and I am a 1st-year BTech [CSE(AI&ML)] student. I have been following your work in this field of digital literacy, and I am very inspired by your career path.

I am writing to ask if you might have 15–20 minutes available sometime next week for a brief virtual meeting. I would love to ask a few questions regarding AIML use in industry trends or skill development and seek your professional advice.

I understand you have a very busy schedule, and I truly appreciate any time you can spare.

Best regards,

Panchami Chakraborty

Email 2: Request for Extension

Subject: Request for Assignment Deadline Extension – [Your Name]

Dear Professor,

I hope you are having a good week.

I am writing to respectfully request a short extension for the submission of my assignment for digital literacy, which is currently due on 31/03/26. Unfortunately, due to unexpected personal circumstances, I have encountered some challenges that have impacted my ability to complete the work to my usual standard within the original timeframe.

I would greatly appreciate an extension of 2 days to ensure that I can submit a high-quality and thorough assignment. I am committed to making the best use of this additional time and will ensure the work is submitted promptly by the new date.

Thank you for your time, understanding, and consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Panchami Chakraborty
